Travel to Darmstadt

Train
Darmstadt main station is served by ICE, IC, EC and Interregio trains on long-distance north-south routes (including ICE 4, 14, 26, 41, EC/IC 62, EC 213) and by Flixtrain (FLX 10).

In regional transport, Darmstadt is connected to the regional rail and express lines Frankfurt-Heidelberg and Mannheim (Main-Neckar-Bahn/RB67/68 and RE60), Wiesbaden/Mainz-Aschaffenburg (Rhein-Main-Bahn/RB75) and Darmstadt-Eberbach and Erbach (Odenwaldbahn/RB80 and 81) as well as the tram Bad Soden-Frankfurt-Langen-Darmstadt (S3).

Car
You can reach Darmstadt via the A5 (Frankfurt am Main-Heidelberg/Basel) and A67 (Cologne/Wiesbaden-Mannheim) highways as well as the B3 (Langen-Bensheim) and B26 (Dieburg-Darmstadt) federal highways. Follow the signs in the direction of Darmstadt-Stadtmitte.

Airplain
Frankfurt Airport is 25 km away and can be reached in approx. 20 minutes by car via the highway A5. The HEAG-Airliner shuttle bus (Terminal 1: Area B, Stop 14; Terminal 2: Directly at the exit) takes you comfortably and without a car from the airport to Darmstadt Central Station. Alternatively, airport transfers are offered by cab. The fare is approx. 41€ (TAM airport transfer, tel. +49 6151 44722).

Transportation in Darmstadt

Public Transport
You will find bus and tram stops as well as a cab rank in front of the main entrance to Darmstadt Central Station. Streetcar lines 1, 2 and 3 as well as several bus lines (e.g. K, F, FU, 671) take you to the “Schloss” station.

Foot and Bike
The Institute of Political Science can be reached in about 30 minutes on foot and about 10 minutes by bike (e.g. along Rheinstraße) from Darmstadt main train station.

Cab
The cab service can be reached via the central telephone number +49 6151 19410.

Parking
In the city center there are several paid parking spaces and garages (e.g. Justus-Liebig-Garage, Q-Park Schlossgaragen Friedensplatz/Karolinenplatz, Q-Park Darmstadtium).
